50th Annual Pennridge Gallery of the Arts September 16, 2018

Founded in 1968 by Walter Baum's son, "Bert" Baum, the 50th Annual Pennridge Gallery of the Arts will be held on Sunday, Sept 16, 2018 from 12-5pm.

Awards totalling over $3000 are given to Artists, Photographers, and Sculptors. The Washington House hosts the "Art in the Parlours" and is another way to participate in this juried show.

With booths lining the streets filled with art and crafts, the day also features live music throughout the festival, children's entertainment and activities, Sellersville restaurants open to the public, plus food trucks, as well as local breweries, wineries and more. We strive to recognize our local talents in all forms is an important part of Walter Baum's legacy and will exhibit his work as featured artist in his former home and studio on Main Street!

Judges are: Ms. Jennifer Schmidt Spear, Artist, Hon. Senior District Judge Charles W. Baum of Perkasio, and Ms. Shannon Fugate, Exec. Director of Baum School of Art

If you are interested in participating as a Artist, Crafter or Vendor in 2018, please find all the information in registering at galleryofhearts.org.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Margaret Wiseheart Anderson at wiseheartist@gmail.com or 215-669-4577.
