Dear Members:

Happy fall to all.

We have a busy fall schedule, thanks to Diane DeAngelis, with excellent meeting presenters, James Toogood & Paul DuSold, a workshop by James Toogood and our Members' Show.

We hope you all participate in The NHAL Fall Show (formerly known as the NHAL Small Works Show). It is open to all members, for no charge. The show is held, this year, at The Conservatory, 4059 Skyron Dr., Doylestown (near the Doylestown Airport off Cold Spring Creamery Rd. by Swamp Rd.).

Please invite your friends and family to the opening reception on Friday, Nov. 4 from 6-8pm. The show is open through Nov. 19.

Happy creating!

New Hope Art League Meeting & Event Details:

We are very excited to have the opportunity to host James Toogood for a lecture "The Art of Watercolor" at our meeting - Tuesday, October 4th, 7pm and workshop- Saturday, October 8th, 10am - 4pm.

Please sign up for the workshop ASAP as we expect this to fill quickly, deadline for sign up is October 2nd to Diane at nhalartshow@gmail.com

Please note your experience level.

Artist, author and teacher, James Toogood paints the people, places and things that make up contemporary life. He studied painting at the PA Academy of the Fine Arts (PAFA). His work has been in over 40 solo shows and hundreds of groups shows in the US and abroad. He's won the 2010 Allied Artists of America "Gold Medal of Honor" for best in show, among countless other awards. He's a signature member of many art organizations including the American Watercolor Society, Allied Artists of America, the National Watercolor Society, PAFA Fellowship and Alumni Association, the PA Watercolor Society. He's contributed to over 20 books and written "Incredible Light and Texture in Watercolor". James teaches at PAFA, National Academy of Design in NYC and the Perkins Center for the Arts, Moorestown, NJ.

WATERCOLOR Lecture & WORKSHOP WITH JAMES TOOGOOD

This workshop will cover linear and aerial perspective, how to capture a feeling of light, ways to paint clouds and water, among other interests of the participants.

James is happy to work with the participants on anything they would like to work on and explore any stylistic areas they are interested in trying.

Individuals with all levels of experience welcome.

Workshop Saturday October 8th, 10am to 4pm

This workshop will be $50 to $100 per person depending on the amount of artists signing up. We need 8 to keep it at $50. All payments should go through PayPal on our web site. Non-NHAL member fee is $100, join today to get the member price, www.Newhopeartleague.com

All participants are encouraged to attend the free talk prior to the workshop.

Both events will be held at St. Martin of Tours Church, 1 Riverstone Circle, New Hope.

The NHAL Fall Show

(formerly known as the NHAL Small Works Show) is open to all members, for no charge.

Painting Critique Session with Dot Bunn - Tuesday October 11 – 9:30 to 12:30 - $25.00

Artists often get too close to their own work. A critique session offers you a chance to step back, measure your success and discuss problems as you go forward. Dot will critique and discuss what is working and what is not working with suggestions on ways to improve as you go forward. You may bring any paintings or drawings that you are currently working on and older paintings you have not been able to finish. Dot will discuss at least two pieces from each artist. After that she will critique as many as time will allow. You are welcome to stay and listen as she talks about all the work brought in. To register or information: dotbunnart@gmail.com

Cindy Roesinger's "Bucks County Playhouse" was juried into this year's Phillips Mill Exhibition and received a 1st Place award in the 2016 American Art Awards Competition.

ARTIST OPPORTUNITIES:

From NHAL member, Harry Boardman:

The Souderton Art Jam is coming up on 9/24 (10-5). It's a sweet 1-day show with a small entry fee (I think $60). The show also features live music, an international poetry event, food trucks, modest juried art awards, kids' art activities, and a wine & beer tasting tent. We have lots of great craft vendors but we could use a few more artists who paint/draw.

I'm hoping you might consider doing the show or be willing to pass on a link to the show: <http://www.stmainst.org/art-jam-artists> there is a link for the "artist/artisan application" right there.

The Garden State Watercolor Society Call for Art

47th ANNUAL JURIED SHOW Ellarslie, the Trenton City Museum

November 19, 2016 – January 15, 2017 $5,000 in cash and prizes awarded

Deadline for entries – October 15, 2016

Artwork will be selected for the exhibition and awards by juror Joel Popadics. His watercolors have been exhibited in solo and group exhibitions in galleries and museums across the United States, including the National Academy of Art. He is First Vice-President of the American Watercolor Society and he has been featured many times in American Artist, Watercolor Artist and The Artist's Magazines. He leads watercolor workshops in the US and Europe during the summer. "I love the look and essence of watercolor. When I work with watercolor, I am reminded how unpredictable life is and to always expect the unexpected." Eligibility • Open to all NJ, NY, PA and DE residents, artists 18 and over. • Original water media (i.e., watercolor, acrylic, gouche, casein, egg tempera). See the website: ellarslie.org for more information

SEEKING ARTIST PARTICIPATION AT

“DISCOVER DOYLESTOWN - FIRST SUNDAY CELEBRATION”

Artists interested in participating in this monthly event are asked to send an email to info@stephanielisle.com with the following information:

Your name, art medium, contact information, details on your participation preference (i.e. meet the artist and the art, live demonstration, plein air painting etc), and which months you are available. You will only be added to the list if this information is available.

- A collective list of interested artists will be distributed to the merchants, who in turn will contact you directly to work out all details. In order to avoid a run on the same venues, businesses will pick the artists, not the other way around. Please know all participating merchants are in the center of Doylestown and have equal visibility and advertising.
- This could be a great opportunity to establish long lasting relationships or just to give this event a try and see if this is for you. There is no long-term commitment, you tell us which months you are available and a business will contact you if interested. There is no guaranteed placement, as each business will have to find the perfect fit based on availability.
- Students, professionals and amateurs are all welcome

Call for Photography:

TRANSFORMATIONS AN EXHIBITION OF THE IMAGINATION

If you have been rejected from other shows or your work questioned because you use textures, composites, filters, or any of the other wonderful tools available to create your own vision, then you have found your home! Welcome to TRANSFORMATIONS! Following the huge success of our AMERICANA Exhibition, The Pennsylvania Center For Photography in Doylestown and Stephanie Lisle - Promotion of the Arts are pleased to announce TRANSFORMATIONS, a juried exhibition that pays tribute to the vision and skills of photographers who freely express their creativity by whatever means they choose.

The only requirements are that the images must be two-dimensional and have started life in a camera. You can modify or create the physical environment, apply in-camera techniques, or use post processing to realize your own artistic reality. We are a very inclusive organization, so any degree of alteration from mild to extreme is welcome in our show.

Once again, we will be running a print exhibition and digital exhibition concurrently. The deadline for entries is September 25, 2016 and another rousing reception will open the show on November 4, 2016. Exhibition dates are November 4 - 20, 2016.

For complete details on the exhibition please visit <http://www.pacenterforphotography.org/>

You will also find regular updates on the exhibition as well as other photography happenings and info on our Facebook pages at:
